Douglas Murray, the director of the British Free Speech Union, announced a new initiative on Monday aimed at doxing critics of Israel for "hate speech" and keeping them from getting jobs.

"Douglas Murray is Director of the British Free Speech Union. He is now going to lead an initiative to have harsher penalties for those accused of hate speech, and bar 'bigots' from employment opportunities based on social media posts!" Keith Woods commented on X.

"These speech laws have been used to target nationalists more than anyone -- Murray's countryman Sam Melia is going to jail for sharing stickers about mass-immigration and this is what he is working on, what a disgrace!"

The Tafsik Organization, which is behind the initiative, says on their website that they're lobbying for new hate crime laws to block people from getting jobs and keep them from traveling freely:

Proposing a Hate Offenders List akin to the Sex Offenders list for those convicted of Hate Crimes would streamline law enforcement efforts, imposing travel restrictions, limiting access to certain public places, and significantly impacting job opportunities to deter the wielders of hatred from positions of power.

They also say they're building a doxing database using facial recognition and AI:

Utilizing the SEO from social media platforms like Twitter(X)/TikTok/Facebook posts reported onto D.A.V.I.D. will have hyper visibility using a simple google search, affecting the individuals employment opportunities and reputation. D.A.V.I.D. employs facial recognition to identify bigots from photos or videos. AI spiders crawl social media platforms, detecting antisemitic content in posts, comments, and images.

This is what Murray is now championing:

About TECAH

TECAH (The Emergency Coalition Against Hate) unites diverse ethnic and religious communities to collaboratively confront threats to democracy. Our collective mission involves advocating and legislating against both Islamic extremism and divisive woke/DEI ideologies. To further this cause, we are organizing a unique networking evening that brings together community leaders from various backgrounds, spanning Jewish, Hindu, Christian, Persian, Azerbaijani, and Albanian communities. This gathering aims to collectively address shared challenges, focusing on countering Islamic and far-left extremism and hate. TECAH's advocacy efforts are geared towards safeguarding democracy and securing Canada's future through the implementation of pertinent laws and policies.

Legislation/Bills

Proposing a Hate Offenders List akin to the sex offenders list for those convicted of hate crimes would streamline law enforcement efforts, imposing travel restrictions, limiting access to certain public places, and significantly impacting job opportunities to deter the wielders of hatred from positions of power.

Immigration

Our advocated vetting system for immigrants prioritizes shared morals, ensuring alignment with Canadian values by rejecting hate, forced ideologies, and violence, safeguarding a future founded on these principles.

IRGC

In response to the Iranian Revolutionary Guard Corps' oppressive actions and global terrorism financing, TECAH strongly urges Canada to sever ties with Iran, designate the IRGC as a terrorist entity, and expel its representatives from our nation.

D.A.V.I.D.

Database Against Violence, Intimidation, & Discrimination

D.A.V.I.D., the Datahub Against Violence, Intimidation, and Discrimination, revolutionizes the fight against bigotry. Led by Tafsik, it tackles antisemitic rhetoric using a robust database. Utilizing the SEO from social media platforms like Twitter(X)/TikTok/Facebook posts reported onto D.A.V.I.D. will have hyper visibility using a simple google search, affecting the individuals employment opportunities and reputation. D.A.V.I.D. employs facial recognition to identify bigots from photos or videos. AI spiders crawl social media platforms, detecting antisemitic content in posts, comments, and images. Upon identification, D.A.V.I.D. studies historical activity to gauge radicalization. It's the first global multilingual database, accessible in every language, ensuring a comprehensive approach against bigotry worldwide.

The announcement triggered widespread backlash on X:

"Free speech" ends when jewish power feels threatened.

After Oct 7, Murray went on a propaganda blitz for the Israeli government and released a PR junket marketed as an "interview" with Prime Minister Benjamin Netanyahu.

Bibi Netanyahu tells his good friend Douglas Murray that if Israel doesn't continue waging the war in Gaza, Iran will "conquer the Middle East," then threaten Europe and the United States with nuclear weapons. Murray smirks and nods along pic.twitter.com/vLmo6VaFHR

Impressively pathetic interview by @DouglasKMurray. Conducted not as a traditional "interview" between journalist and state official, but a chat between ideological allies. Murray invites Bibi call for regime change in Iran -- Bibi does so by mentioning the three dead US soldiers pic.twitter.com/Ke7iC84bYp

— Michael Tracey (@mtracey) January 31, 2024

Murray, after posing for a nice photo alongside Bibi, also published a NY Post item relaying Bibi's standard exhortation that Israel's war is also (somehow) America's war. Very comprehensive PR initiative by Murray here -- really left no stone unturned. Worth every shekel pic.twitter.com/9d9pOioq1z

What are the odds the Israeli government is behind this doxing initiative Murray is now shilling for?
